

It's Winnie the Pooh Day!

In which the author of the beloved bear, A. A. Milne, would've turned 137 years old! Why not celebrate with a few sweet reads?

~ The Inspirations ~

Did you know Winnie was inspired by a real bear? During World War I, Canadian Lieutenant Harry Colebourn purchased a little black bear from a hunter while traveling to England, then subsequently donated her to the London Zoo. His great-granddaughter, Lindsay Mattick, recounts the tale in her books:

Location: E - Mattick

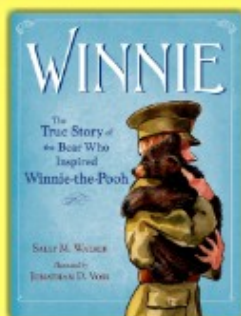

DVD: Available on Hoopla

Location: J - Mattick

Also available:

Location:
Non-Fic - J 599.785 W

Location: DVD - GOO

Location:
Non-Fic - 578.0942 A

More materials are listed on the back!

~ A. A. Milne's Works~

~ Authorized Sequels~

Location: J - Milne

*Audio-books available on Hoopla

Location: J - Milne

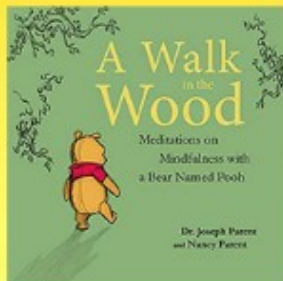

Location: J - Best

*Audio-books available under same location title

Location: JTB - Milne

Audio: Available on Hoopla

The Tao of Pooh by Benjamin Hoff

Audio: Available on Hoopla

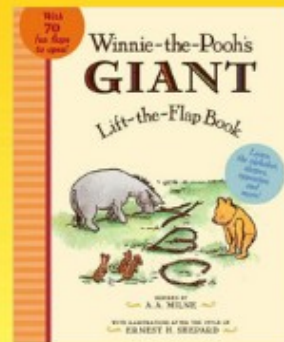

The Winnie the Pooh Cookbook

Location: Non-Fic - J 641.5 E

Three cheers for Pooh by Brian Sibley

Location: PTC - J S23.91 S

Works Inspired by Milne

Location:

Board Books - E- Milne

Tigger's Giant Lift-the-Flap Book

Location: Board Books - E Tigger's

Winnie the Pooh's 123s

Location: Concept - E Milne

Winnie the Pooh's Colors

Location: Concept - E Milne

Winnie the Pooh Tells Time

Location: Concept - E Milne

Tigger's Breakfast

Location: Board Books - E Dollin

and Tigger too!

JDVD- MAN

JDVD - WIN

DVD - CHR

JDVD - T